MEN'S CLUB

Email MensClub@AhavatAchim.Org to join the Men's Club.

EREV ROSH HASHANAH

The Shofar is not blown on Erev Rosh Hashanah to distinguish between the voluntary shofar blowing of Elul and the obligatory shofar blowing of Rosh HaShana. One should take a haircut and bathe. Men immerse in a Mikvah. Candle-lighting Brachot are "להדליק נר של יום טוב" and "שהחיינו".

HATARAT NEDARIM - התרת נדרים

After Shacharit on Monday we separate into two groups, one for English speakers and for those fluent in Hebrew, to effectuate hatarat nedarim, the annulment of vows. To be valid, hatarat nedarim must be said in a language one understands.

א' דראש השנה - FIRST NIGHT ROSH HASHANAH

First night, after services we bless each other with: "לשנה טובה תכתב ותחתם", "May you be inscribed and sealed for a good year". According to the Vilna Gaon we do not say "ותחתם" ('and sealed') on Rosh HaShanah. At home to symbolize a sweet year we dip challah in honey. We also dip a piece of apple in honey and eat it after making the Bracha פרי העץ הברכה. We then say, "May it be Your will our G-D and G-D of our fathers that You renew for us a good, sweet year." Other symbolic foods are eaten such as meat of a ram's head, or the head of a fish or fowl, followed by statements like, "May it be Your will that we be raised high and proud like the head and not lowly like the tail." We eat grated carrots (Yiddish word for carrots 'Mehren' can be translated as multiplying) and say, "May it be Your will that we be fruitful and multiply" and "May it be Your will that our merits increase."

ב' דראש השנה - SECOND NIGHT ROSH HASHANAH

It is proper for women to wear a new garment or display a new fruit at candle-lighting so that the שהחיינו applies to these as well (do not eat the fruit before Kiddush). On the 2nd night bring to the table a new fruit or wear a new garment so that the Bracha שהחיינו that we recite at the end of Kiddush applies to these as well. (If one forgot to prepare a new fruit or garment he still makes the שהחיינו).

SECOND DAY - תיקעת שופר - SOUNDING THE SHOFAR

Before sounding the Shofar, we recite "למנצח" (Psalm 47) seven times, followed by the verses whose first letters spell out "קרע שטן" "destroy Satan." The Baal T'kiah makes the Brachot: "לשמוע קול שופר", and "שהחיינו" bearing in mind that the Brachot and sounding the Shofar also are on behalf of all those listening. Baal T'kiah blows three sets each of תשר"ת, תשר"ת, and תשר"ת. One absolutely must not talk during the first thirty sounds, and even afterwards one must not talk until the conclusion of all one hundred sounds at the end of services unless absolutely necessary. After the first thirty blasts the Baal T'kiah leads the congregation in: אשרי; and לדוד. We return the Sifrei Torah to the ark.) One may not eat before hearing the Shofar sounded. However, if one feels weak, he may make Kiddush and taste some food immediately after the first thirty blasts – the תקיעות דמישוב. the prohibition against speaking during the Chazzan's repetition of Shemonei Esrei is a very serious one.

צום גדלי - FAST OF GEDALIAH

SEPT. 14, 3 TISHREI

Fast is observed from 5:24 AM until 7:47 PM. The chazzan says the prayer Anenu in the repetition of the Shachrit amidah. At Shacharit Thirteen Divine Attributes are said. Passages of Vayechelel are read from the Torah (Shemot 32: 14 & 34: 1-10).

THE CAPACITY OF YOVEL

As we enter Rosh Hashanah and our 50th anniversary, our Yovel year, I find myself thinking about a concept that connects meaningfully to both: capacity.

One catalyst to these thoughts was in a recent “Seder on the Siddur,” Rabbi Shestack’s deep dive into the text of the siddur, taking place each week at seudah shlishit. That week, the text was the final hallelukah, Tehillim 150. He pointed out that there is an idea of ten being “completeness,” and enumerated the nine instruments mentioned in the final perek of Tehillim. Then as if acting out the concept, his voice raised, and he shared his reading of the final line, “kol haneshama t’hallel kah,” (every soul will praise You), “The tenth instrument is you!” You have to bring yourself - I paraphrase here - to fully “accomplish” the goals of the siddur. Our own capacity is required to bring the siddur to life.

Rosh Hashanah is Hayom Harat Olam, the birthday of the world. In the first recorded moments in the Torah, Hashem created something where there had been nothing before, making room for life, possibility, growth, and relationship. In a sense, creation is the ultimate act of creating capacity: Hashem brought into existence a world in which we could live, grow, and even further increase capacity.

Our Yovel is a wonderful opportunity to reflect on the capacity that has been created here over the past fifty years. What began as a small community has grown into a shul with a vibrant religious life, a deep sense of family, and an extraordinary ability to care for and connect with one another. We should be enormously proud, and enormously grateful, for the many people whose vision, generosity, leadership, volunteerism, and commitment to Torah and to Hashem expanded the capacity of this community and made that growth possible.

And we should ask ourselves: What new capacity can we create?

Can we make room in our lives to connect more or differently to this great community, and in doing so, increase its capacity? For each of us, that might look different. It might mean committing to invite a person or family to a Shabbat meal whom we have never hosted before. It might mean coming to Friday night minyan four times before Chanukah. It might mean taking on a new learning commitment, being more intentional in our tefillah, reaching out to someone we don't know well, volunteering for something we've always meant to do, or finding a new way to support someone in our community.

THE CAPACITY OF YOVEL

Fifty years is both a celebration of how far we have come and an invitation to think about what comes next. What kind of kehillah do we want Ahavat Achim to be in the next fifty years? What do we want the hallmarks of Ahavat Achim - as an Integrated Torah Community and a Family Shul - to be? And what can each of us do, in our own way, to help create the capacity for that future?

I am incredibly grateful to everyone who makes Ahavat Achim what it is: our rabbi, our lay leaders and volunteers, and every member who shows up, opens a home, gives generously, learns, davens, welcomes others, and helps make this shul feel like a family.

This Rosh Hashanah, let's daven that Hashem helps us recognize, strengthen, and expand our capacity for Torah, mitzvot, avodat Hashem, and ma'asim tovim, so that we can make even greater use of the gifts He has given each of us and, in our Yovel year, help lay the foundation for the next fifty years of our kehillah.
